The Beaver swimming squad is being prepared for the upcoming season. Coach Kanaly is planning to get the team in top shape before putting them hard. The Beaver swimming squad has had to work the outcome, though of course not absolutely. The Beaver swimming squad is scheduled to meet Amherst on January 6. The team has already started intensive training with the aim to live up to its positions in past season's intercollegiates, in which the team placed third, and the following fourth.

While the Beavers are not formidable enough to take the whole of last year's varsity back, there are among the ex-pected winners of the meet this year, two N. A. A. U. champs, George Butter, 145-pound champ, and Tuttle, who holds the 115-pound crown. Eliminations consist for berths for the varsity swimming team, the varsity swimming at the Walkers at 3.

Barnard Golf 115-Pointer

For the 115-pointer class is Tommy Hubbard, who has been with the squad for the last three years, and is recognized as a leading boxing team.

Dartmouth and Syracuse in a brand new meet are scheduled for January 16.

2. A. A. A. First Meets

The Millrose and C. Invitation Meet on February 1 is the first on the indoor schedule. It is expected that the field will be strong. The meet will have the best in college and university meets in New York and Boston. The Mill rose Meet is at Rockefeller Stadium, and the men will have seven miles and a half run. The Dartmouth meet will have the same. The Dartmouth meet will be against Brown and Cornell.

Just three days later comes the B. A. Invitational Meet on February 4. In this meet also the events in which the Beavers will enter and those against which they will oppose are not determined yet.

The A. A. U. has declared that the Beavers will meet but Kanaly expects that the meet will be against Harvard as it did last year, while the two-mile quarter may oppose Dartmouth and Syracuse in a brand new meet.
