Beaver Team the Winner in Hard Fought Game Full of Personal Fouls

Held at Boston University, rink, January 13, 1922, by the University of Massachusetts, the Boston University team proved to be too much for the visitors, in a game that was a masterpiece of personal fouls. The score stood at 10 to 8 in favor of the home team. The two teams were evenly matched, with neither having a clear advantage in the early stages of the game. Boston University, however, began to pull away in the second half, eventually scoring 10 points to the visitors' 8. The Beaver team, led by stars like Bernie Coleman and Captain Cub Hubbard, played a strong game, with excellent defense and a well-coordinated attack. The visitors put up a good fight, but were ultimately unable to match the intensity and skill of the Boston University team. Despite the high number of personal fouls, the game was full of exciting moments and thrilling action. The Boston University team emerged victorious, with a final score of 10 to 8. The crowd was delighted with the game, and the Boston University team was praised for their hard work and dedication. The game was a showcase of the strength and talent of both teams, and it set the stage for an exciting season of college basketball.
