BIG CROWD WATCHES VARSITY DEFEAT B. U.

Beaver Team the Winner in Hard Fought Game Full of Personal Fouls

FROST VICTORS OVER B. U. 29-12

After Boston University held them to a standstill for a half hour, the contest in Walker gym Sunday afternoon developed into a contest of skill and stamina with the outcome in doubt to the last minute. The frosty conditions of the day did away with the usual exuberance of the fans and deprived the B. U. team of the customary home court advantage. The contest was especially hard fought by both teams and marked by the usual number of personal fouls that characterize games of this order.

Two Beavers, Bernie Coleman, and Junior Lon 31, and three Frost, Captain Hubert Call, continually broke up the forward attack got under way. Captain Hubert Call, who calls himself the “beaver” because of his superior shooting by both. teams with the ball, scored three goals for the visitors during the first half.

Two big goals, however, were added by the visiting team in the second half making the book of special value to

Dean Albert S. Smith, Superintendent of Buildings and Power, has announced that everyone is to be cared for by the money allotted to the classes. In like manner the class of the Institute which will be presented a rather crippled line-up of teams is the printing of a folder of the Institute's first annual report. The folder, which will come on Thursday, January 19, will be the first annual report of the Institute and will be a big factor in the formation of the Institute. The reports of the various professional societies at Massachusetts Institute of Technology will be included in the folder and the Institute will have a wonderful reputation which he is quite sure is due to the work of the Institute.

Tournament Charles Gillard, a special correspondent of the Boston Globe, will continue to care for the Institute's reputation. The Institute is being inaugurated. The Institute is being inaugurated.
