MRS. COX PATRONESS FOR WINTER CONCERT

Wife of Governor Sponsors Annual Affair of Clubs at Copley Palace

Sells Tickets Tomorrow Noon

Mrs. Charles H. Cox, wife of the governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, has consented to act as a patroness for the Winter Concert to be held Saturday evening next week at the Copley Palace on Friday evening. Announcement of the affair of the Clubs will be on sale at the booth in the main lobby tomorrow noon. Sign-ups will also be re-binding the room until further notice as a tribute to the holders. Mrs. Cox’s consent to act as a patroness for the concert and dance was given yesterday morning, after Mrs. Cox was notified that the committee was making a request. The committee has already obtained 22 names, which will be announced when the list is complete. At the end of this time, Dancing Until 3 o’clock

Sign-ups for the concert and dance will continue at the Copley, and tickets may be redeemed tomorrow noon upon the presentation of the entry, which costs $20 in advance, or $25 in the box office. Tickets without an entry may be redeemed for $20 in the box office. A ticket to the concert will carry a small donation, which will be presented at the concert. The committee has also announced that the dance will begin at 3 o’clock, and $2 will be charged for admission.

TECHNIQUE ELECTORS CHOOSE THIS WEEK

Men Elected Now Will Choose Board to Publish Next Year’s Technique

The election of the Technique Electoral Committee will take place on Friday, and the elections are to be held at 4 o’clock. Those who intend to vote should find their names on the list of eligible voters in the main lobby. All eligible voters are recommended to make a trip to the election, and all eligible voters are recommended to make a trip to the election committee.

WALKER MEMORIAL COMMITTEE RENEWS YOUTH WITH COMPETITION

The Walker Memorial Committee has announced the result of its contest for the prize for the best work of art submitted by a student, and the winner was H. V. Shipley ‘23, C. K. King, and S. A. L. Johnson. The prize consists of a cash prize of $100, and the winner is to be selected by the committee.

FRANCE DECORATES ARCHITECT BOSSWORTH

Designer of Technology Given Cross of Honor

HAS HAD SUCCESSFUL CAREER

W. Bosworth, architect of the new Technology buildings, has recently received the decoration of Chevalier of the Legion of Honor from the Government of France.

Since returning from the Réseau des Beaux Arts in 1919, Mr. Bosworth has been active in many channels in aiding the interest of the French in the country, particularly during the World War.

In the competition among the members of the Society of Beaux Arts Architects, for a monument to Major L. L. J. L. B. L., in the Art Institute of Chicago, Washington, he was acknowledged as the winner and given the task of designing the monument. It presents the plan of a Beaux Arts conception which he has been working on for a number of years.

The architect has been working on the design for a number of years, and has been working on the design for a number of years.

TO THE NEW COMMITTEE

The new committee held its first meeting yesterday afternoon.

ANNUAL AFFAIR OF TECHNOLOGY

The management of the Tech Show for 1922 has been named, and all score on which the Tech Show will close at 4 o’clock on Friday, January 19. All drawings for the competition should be sent to Mr. Bosworth for consideration.

Several posters and score covers have already been judged. However, after the general competition by the committee, and scores on which the Tech Show will close at 4 o’clock on Friday, January 19, will be judged together for the final selection of the winning designs.

INSTITUTE COMMITTEE REPRESENTATIVE DIES

F. M. Foster ‘25 Falls to Survive Appendicitis Operation

FUNERAL THIS AFTERNOON

Frank M. Foster ‘25, of 1526 Columbus St., died at 3 o’clock yesterday at an operation for appendicitis. Foster had been a member of the Institute Committee, representing the freshman class, and is a member of the class of 1925.

Institute Committee Member Dies

Mr. Foster had been a member of the Institute Committee, representing the freshman class. He was a member of the freshman class and a member of the Institute Committee.

The funeral service will be held at 3 o’clock in the Institute Chapel, and the service will begin at 3 o’clock. The service will be followed by a reception at the Institute Club.

Should the Student Tax Be Raised?

SENIORS UNANIMOUS FOR TAX

Last Monday at 5 o’clock in Room 10-275 the assembled representatives of the senior class unanimously voted to favor the proposed increase in the Student Tax. Two proposals were made for the tax, one last Friday and one Monday. Donald F. Carpenter, president of the Senior Class and Chairman of the Institute Committee, pre-}