Second Big Musical Clubs’ Effort Presented at Copley Tonight

The Technique-Electoral Committee holds its first official meeting tonight in the main lobby of the Student Union. At 8:15 the Tech Show Orchestra, concert and dance orchestra of the college, will give in the main lobby the annual pre-electoral concert, whose proceeds will be used to support the college athletic teams.

The program is as follows:

- 7:15--Tech Show Orchestra, concert and dance orchestra of the college
- 8:15--Tournament of the Americas, the first official concert of the year

The concert will be under the direction of J. D. Price, treasurer, and A. W. K. Hillings, vice-chairman. The next meeting is scheduled for Monday at 7:15 o'clock, in room 1080. This is to take the place of the Tech Show Orchestra, which has been cancelled.

The members of the society who have not yet gone to America, are asked to report at the office of the Technique, which is in the Student Union. They will be entertained on the trip by the Technique.

The concert will be open to the public.

Do You Want to Be a Smoker?

The question of whether or not one should smoke has been a subject of much debate in recent years. Some believe that smoking is a healthy habit, while others argue that it is harmful. In this article, we will explore some of the arguments for and against smoking and consider whether or not smoking is right for you.
