Technology Quartet Scores Fastest Time in B. A. A. Games—Two-Mile Team Trails Syracuse and Dartmouth Runners

INSTITUTE FRESHMEN TRIMMED BY HANOVERIANS

Harvard University's mile relay team received its annual beating by the Technology quartet at the B. A. A. games Saturday night, Capt. V. A. I. (Jim) Springer, man swimming at least fifty yards in the lead. Coach Frank Snedden's speed combination turned in the fastest mile of the evening being clocked in 3 minutes, 25.2 seconds. The team of Bill Boyd and Phil Wiese was just pushed by the crimson runners and covered the twelve laps seven sec-
