The persistent weather inconsistency of the Harvard Yardy is the chief complaint of the sophomore class, and the need for more tables is the prime concern of the Freshmen. Despite this, the Undergraduate Tea, held in the Cambridge Public Library on Friday, March 5th, was a great success.

The Tea was attended by over 150 students, and the atmosphere was one of camaraderie and good spirits. The weather, although cold and rainy, did not dampen the enthusiasm of the attendees.

The food, consisting of sandwiches, fruit, and pastries, was generously supplied by the Harvard Dining Hall, and was enjoyed by all.

The Tea was organized by the Undergraduate Council, and the proceeds will be donated to the Harvard Relief Fund.

The next Undergraduate Tea is scheduled for May 20th, and all are encouraged to attend.
