SPRING CONCERT IS

CLIMAX OF SEASON

Extensive Successful Season
Proves Clubs Are of Good Calibre

THIRD TERM PROGRAM LONG

The Combined Musical Clubs of Technology are in the midst of one of the most extensive programs in their history. During the Christmas vacation the players of the various clubs went through the middle west, traveling a total of more than 10,000 miles. At the end of the season on Jan. 10, the various groups returned to the city, where they had been during the winter and were placed in two divisions for the final round of the season. In the first division, the club with the highest number of points will be declared the champion of the season. The second division will consist of the clubs with the lowest number of points. The season will conclude on March 15, and the champions of each division will be determined at that time.

First Concert Successful

The annual Spring Concert was the first of the season, and was held Dec. 10. The program consisted of a variety of songs, instrumental pieces, and readings. The audience was greeted by the Chairman of the Program Committee, who said that the concert was a success, and that the members of the various clubs had done well.

Program

2. "The Starlight Waltz," by Vincent Persichetti
3. "The Storm," by Edward MacDowell
5. "The Song," by George Gershwin

The audience gave enthusiastic applause to the performers, who were well-received by the audience. The concert was a great success, and the members of the clubs were pleased with the performance.

Nature of Surprise

The members of the committee refuse to give any hints as to the nature of the surprise. They say that they have ordered favors for their escorts, but that they do not intend to tell the escort what they are before the dance. During the dance, the escort will be presented with a favor, and he will be unable to identify it. During the next week, the escort will be given another favor, and this will be repeated until all favors have been presented. TheNature of Surprise will be the same throughout the entire season.

Names of Men Must Be Submitted

In purchasing signs and favors, the men must now submit their names to the committee. This is in order that all might be treated equally, and that each man might have an equal opportunity to participate in the activities of the club. If a favor is to be composed and signed by the committee, it must be signed by all members of the club. All names of the men must be submitted, and the names of the men who wish to attend the dance must be included on the list.
