HUNTER PEARY WILL
TELLaying AHEAD

A special feature of the sports news of next week will be the return of the track team by Henry C. Peary, 27th, former track varsity man and Harvard track coach this year. Peary, who is still very much interested in track work, will bring the squad this year during the early part of the track season and compare the track team with the highest in the New England region and with those of the other eastern universities.
