

Fifteen Errors Mar Play of Engineer Baseball Teams

Soph Nine Gets Four Runs While Dean Totals Ten

Sophomore baseball stock took a big drop, Saturday, when the nine was trounced, 10 to 4, by Dean Academy in the opening game of a double-header. Walt Kennet, the soph pitcher, was hit rather freely by the Dean men, and a combination of errors by the rest of the team contributed to the prep school score. Captain Earle Bates played a fast game at second, accounting for five putouts, and Bill Manning poled out two of the four hits allotted to the sophs. Dean's best work was done by Captain Tierney, Cote, and Harry Dean. The Sophs started out well in the first inning, sliding over 3 runs, but lost their lead by loose playing in the last four innings. The score:

ANDOVER CLIPS TUFTS OF FROSH RUNNERS, 90-36

Captain Leness' Team Gains Four Firsts—Hammer Record Broken

With an array of record breakers and first water performers outshining the yearling sprinters in both experience and numbers, Andover, Saturday, repeated the usual scalping. The score was again overwhelming, 90 to 36. The prep school resorted to the old habit of entirely fading out the freshmen in about half of the events. When that was not possible they were so stingy as to give only a third to the struggling athletes from the Institute.

Wolfe, an expert in throwing the hammer, broke the old record at Andover and now sees his name heading the list of A-1 hammer throwers, being credited with a distance of slightly more than 167 feet. However, his abnormal showing did not stop Norman Russell and Ed Holmes from taking second and third respectively.

Freshmen Take Four Firsts
 Where the freshman captain, George Leness, came through with the only first in last winter's meet, the yearlings this time picked up four of the primary positions. Captain George repeated his victory in the quarter and found himself pitted against that redoubtable prep school miler, Smith, and in the prettiest mile ever run van-disposed of Thorndike and Dana in the doubles.

J. D. E. Jones and Bennett proved a formidable pair for Captain Scott and Carver. After two sets were played there was still a doubt in the minds of the spectators who would win the affair. The first two sets ended 6-4, 4-6, and then each pair gave its best in deciding the match. The Institute captain and Carver took the third set 6-3.

Next Opponent Is Williams College

The next opponent is Williams on May 5. The varsity squad will have the added advantage of playing on familiar courts since Williams will face them at Chestnut Hill. With two weeks to prepare for this tournament the team is expected to show up well, after May 5 tournaments come thick and fast.

Last year Brown was defeated by a shutout 6-0 and only totalled one set. The summary:

Singles:
 Carver vs Jones ..... 6-2, 1-6, 4-6
 Scott vs Thorndike ..... 6-1, 6-2
 Tremaine vs Bennett ..... 10-8, 6-3
 Hobbs vs Dana ..... 6-2, 6-4
 Score: M. I. T., 3; Brown, 1.

Doubles:
 Carver and Scott vs Jones and Bennett ..... 6-4, 4-6, 6-3
 Tremaine and Hobbs vs Thorndike and Dana ..... 10-8, 6-1
 Total Score: M. I. T., 5; Brown, 1.

At last the weather man was lenient and turned in a perfect day for track work Saturday. The men needed it, however, for Coach Kanaly had all of them on the job going through stiff practice sessions.

ANDOVER WALLOPS FROSH FOR 12 RUNS

Andover Academy took the measure of the freshman ball-tossers, Saturday afternoon, to the tune of 12 to 3, the pitching of Shoop of the prep school nine being the feature of the game. Shoop had 20 strike-outs to his credit at the end of eight innings, the only slip-up coming in the third, when Cook was given a pass and was followed around the bases on hits by Phil Carrier, Harry Lumb, and Dave Peene.

Cook of the frosh nine showed that he had something to offer in the box, but was given ragged support by the rest of the team. Verigan, Lackey and Jones of the Andover team were the principal scorers, while Carrier, Lumb and Cook brought in the frosh tallies. The score:

A Material of Many Uses

Du Pont Fabrikoid is one of the most widely used and indispensable products that Du Pont skill supplies to American industries and homes. This versatile material has brought important economies into many lines of manufacture, where it has replaced materials badly needed elsewhere. During the war, and now in peace, it was the most important means of conserving the supply of natural leather.

Du Pont Fabrikoid was originally offered as a substitute for leather, but as soon as its genuine worth was recognized it won its own place on its merits. It is now used wherever a flexible, waterproof fabric is needed to add serviceability and beauty to any product. Wherever adopted it brings a better looking, longer-lasting finished article to the consumer at a substantial saving in price.

Du Pont Fabrikoid is made in many different grades, some very heavy and rugged, others dainty as linen. It has in all grades a tough, protective coating that excludes moisture, grease and all foreign matter and keeps the material strong, sanitary and weather-proof. Fabrikoid is available in all desirable colors and grains—it can be supplied with practically any surface appearance wanted.

In the Furniture, Automobile, Bookbinding, Traveling Goods, Hat, Novelty and many other trades, Fabrikoid stands firmly on its own feet and is indispensable. As its advantages become known, nation-wide advertising multiplies that knowledge.

Today Fabrikoid is an important aid in bringing production and consumption back to normal.

We will be very glad to supply any inquirer with descriptive literature on Du Pont Fabrikoid.
