H. A. MORRIS SECURES
NEW COACHING LAUNCH

The launch, "Eagles," was recently purchased by Mr. Harry A. Morris, Associate Treasurer of the Yacht Club, and has turned over to the crew management for use as a training and reserve boat for the balance of the season. The new crew will consist of four members who will be selected from the list of as many as 40 members. It will be the first year that the lst crew has had a reserve boat.

Mr. Morris intends to retain the boat for the remainder of the season, or until the new crew is selected. He will be available for training, practice, and racing.
