To members of the Corporation was rati-

One of the important changes since that time. He is widely known for his treatises on the subject- of these improvements, was added to the Faculty four years after being with the Institute for forty years. Professor H. P. Talbot '85, who retired from the staff in 1888, left the Institute four years later after thirty-seven years of active service and accepted at the same time. Changes in the staff were approved.

The Corporation Holds Quarterly Meeting and Approves Staff Promotions

INSTRUCTING STAFF

Chairman: D. S. Tucker to Associate Professor

W. H. McAdams to Associate Professor

W. V. Lyon to Associate Professor

R. R. Lawrence to Professor of Electrical Machinery

F. E. Swett to Associate Professor

Professor L. B. Goodwin, Professor of Technology, reported that the senior class would have a meeting of their own tonight. The class will be given a chance to discuss faculty changes and new courses.

YEAR MARKS SUCCESS FOR MUSIC CLUBS

Fall Concert Given for First Time—Ten-Day Tour Made of Middle West

SEASON IS REVIEWED

Following a long established custom, the Program Committee of the Cambridge Latin Seniors has arranged for the first ever concert of the year. The program will be announced later.

AERONAUTICALS GLIDER MAKES FIRST FLIGHT

Plane Flies Across Tech Field Successfully

The first trial of the New England Soaring Club's new plane was successfully made on Tuesday afternoon. The plane is the first ever built by the club and is expected to be a great success.

HIGH SCHOOL DANCES INVADE WEEK-END

Cambridge Latin Seniors to Hold Class Affair

Tuesday night the main hall of the City Auditorium will be taken over by the Cambridge Latin Seniors for a formal dance. The program will begin at eight o'clock and all students are expected to be present.

SENIORS ATTENTION

Seniors are to meet for the last formal meeting of the year at ten o'clock on the Rogers House lawn tomorrow evening. Special prayers will be reserved for this occasion and alumni who are attending will be made for those members of the Faculty.

Supt. S. O. Flood to Attract Locker Key Holders

The collection of unpaid articles inédited in the In- stitute has been a problem for some time. The school is faced with the necessity of finding a way to collect these articles. The plan for this year is to change the system of collecting from the present system of handbills and posters to a system where the articles will be gathered at the Institute.

BOSTON POLICE DEPARTMENT

New system of collecting will be put into effect. The system of handbills and posters will be replaced by a system where the articles will be gathered at the Institute.

REAL TRAINING IN AIR

The new schedule of courses for the junior and senior years is provided for in the engineering curriculum. The courses in mathematics and physical science will be offered in the junior year.

The Office also wishes to announce that the year-round course will be offered for the first time this fall. The course will be offered every Saturday afternoon and will begin on September 12th.

ROTC, MEN RECEIVE DITY OF CHARGE

The new schedule of courses for the junior and senior years is provided for in the engineering curriculum. The courses in mathematics and physical science will be offered in the junior year.

The Office also wishes to announce that the year-round course will be offered for the first time this fall. The course will be offered every Saturday afternoon and will begin on September 12th.

The Office also wishes to announce that the year-round course will be offered for the first time this fall. The course will be offered every Saturday afternoon and will begin on September 12th.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

Special Offer

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

The Tech Engineering News, $1.50, and the Tech News, $1.00, are regularly published. The Tech Engineering News is a quarterly magazine that contains news and articles of interest to engineering students. It is an excellent source of information about the latest developments in technology.

The Tech News, $1.00, is a weekly newspaper that covers the latest news and events at the Institute. It is an excellent source of information about the Institute's activities and events.

The Office also wishes to announce that the year-round course will be offered for the first time this fall. The course will be offered every Saturday afternoon and will begin on September 12th.