NOBLESSE ORDO

Now that the scholar year has gotten fairly under way, it is inevitable that the pressure of study takes its toll upon the masses of the student body. The incoming class of the Dormitories have held their pledges, and a new election has been elected to carry on the traditions of the fraternity.

The following communication was written by Professor Noble, and is quoted here in full:

"The only people I know who would be the most title to a big "get-together" meeting of the fraternity are the ones who would be the most likely to benefit from such an event. In my opinion, they are the ones who have been the most active in the fraternity in the past few years. They have been the most responsible for the success of the fraternity, and they are the ones who have the most to gain from a "get-together" meeting. I have no doubt that such a meeting would be a great success."

The T. C. A. Books Exchange will continue, having sold books Wednesday, Oct. 11, at 5:00 p.m.
