Cornell won ENCOURAGING

cornell's victory at the famous syracuse invitational race may be encouraging for the engineers as it may not be. the question is whether the red barons who trounced syracuse and conquered her and both she and syracha has got the team it was credited with not tute in the coming championships, it is as dangerous as it has been betioned. on the other hand if syracuse to get the team it was credited with Cornell must have been a lot better last week than when the Engineers controlled her and she and syracuse stand out as formidable oppotion in the Van Cortland run.
