T. E. WANTS BACK NUMBERS

The Girls' Number is making good progress in its work for the coming season. A great deal of interest has been shown in it since the literary work has yet been released.

Scene Set in Mexico

The author states, "The man who writes the book plays only a minor part in the production. It is the man who writes the music and lyrics, the director, and the management of the show. It is this group that really decides the success of the show." His first idea was to have a production in the Near East, but for various reasons the plan was dropped. In the end, it was decided to have a production in Mexico, a country he had always admired, and to have a show that would be both entertaining and educational.
