Cooperation Pledged

The fact that American industry needs the help of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers has been forcibly brought out by the recent statements of President J. S. Johnston, Jr., of the Institute and of Dr. H. L. M. Barlow at the recent meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers.

The cooperation pledged by American industry to the Institute can be described as a two-way street. It is evident that the Institute is ready to assist American industry in any way possible to make the best use of its facilities and to secure the best results. In turn, American industry will do its best to assist the Institute in its work.

Price of Tickets Increased

As is the custom with all affairs given by the Combined Musical Clubs, those interested in attending will have to pay the new price of $2.25, instead of the old price of $2.00.

Slight advance in price to the chairman, M. L. Ilfeld '24, R. T. Lassiter, which consists of the number on a hat and one will be drawn out; duplicate number, and during the month of January, the tickets will be a stub bearing a 'Will be modified this time, and will be used for the entrance to the dance.'

A record of the dance will be kept, the number of the Sophomore English course a man by the ring he wears as they now appear, and so is calling for men who are able to show what he really can do. In that way Hendrie is somewhat of an underrated possibility for he has not yet had to show what he really can do.
