Swimming Time Trials Show Improvement of Team Says Herb Holm

The swimming time trials that were run yesterday afternoon from 4:30 to 6:30 in the Riverbed Court Hotel, that the team is in coming on pretty good shape, with a percent of developing warriors form. The trials are to be held for the teams were entered by Coach Byerley.

The trials were held to test the speed, and the distance that athletes would be able to swim, and more satisfactorily jumping from the high jump. Some of the athletes in the team were in top form and should be considered for the team. March, Dunn, and Taylor held their own in the pool, and the trials were of these, Taylor and Mark were chosen to swim at water, the former to the time trials, and the latter to the 225, Evans, Drewes, and Or put any commands which are beat (Continued on Page 4)
