Christmas Association Meeting at Boston Y.
Dinner Planned With Well Known Speakers

A 500-gather dinner of all the college men of a given year or of a given class--any class--will be held at the Boston Y. M. C. A. at 6 p.m. on Thursday, December 14. President John F. O'Callahan will preside. Two of the well known speakers at the dinner will be Raymond E. Fosdick of the New York Evening Post and W. L. turquoise, C. A. of Huntington Avenue.

Freshmen Quintet Outscores Varsity in Short Well Played Practice Game

Yesterday afternoon the varsity and freshman teams went through a hard practice session, the varsity men being outscored with a team of freshmen picked by Coach Hitchens. In the short center practice, the one marked fixture was the great improvement shown by the freshmen players. During the last few practices the freshmen have been steadily showing better form, and yesterday the first few series revealed.

Going Into Business?

After graduation, you must enter business, and there are many types of business. The most profitable will depend upon your own individual conditions. If you have little or no education, your best method will be through the evening schools. If you have received a good education, even though a liberal one, you may then choose your type of business according to your own inclinations and abilities. With the right type of mental training you may enter any business that appeals to you.
