Complete Reorganization of Technique Board Shows Many Sweeping Changes

Future Boards to Be Headed by Executive Committee of Three Seniors—Effective with '25 Book

Elections Made From Competitions

Following the action of the Institute Committee taken last Thursday, a sweeping change has been made in the organization of the Technique Board. The change will take effect with next year’s board; this year’s will remain the same. The new board will be formed entirely as the result of competitions in the various departments, as has been done in past years by other institutions publications. The future boards will be headed by three Seniors, a General Manager, a Managing Editor, and a Business Manager.

MINNESOTA MAKES LAST ASTHMA APPEAL

Meet In Walker Next Thursday To Elect Officers

After failing to sell the interests of the current organization, the Minnesota Asthma and Allergy Association has formed a new organization to be called the Minnesota Asthma and Allergy Association of New England. The new organization will feature new officers and members in the wake of next year’s board. The new board will be composed of Seniors, who will be chosen from the editorial and business departments. These departments will be composed of Juniors, Seniors, and Undergraduates. The editors of the various sections of the newspaper will be chosen from the editorial and business departments.

Under the new organization there will be a Student Committee consisting of the above Senior officers, the editorial and business departments. These departments will be composed of Juniors, who will be chosen from the editorial and business departments. The editors of the various sections of the newspaper will be chosen from the editorial and business departments.

Junior Board Decides Action

The first step is the organization of the new board, which is being held at 1 p.m. on Thursday, January 17, in Walker. The meeting will be held at Walker, and will be open to the students.
