Choice of a Career
From the Yale News

The Ninety-Four

Someone, probably an insurance agent, was quoted recently as saying that from the mass of one hundred college graduates one individual only rose to the Pullo and barker class, perhaps near the top of the form. Five others came comfortably off and found themselves after twenty years at the small cayle and chaffeur stage. The other ninety-four presumably congregate in the great section of the American people who drive their own trucks to the golf club. In other words, dreaming about being a rich man is nothing, and making the grade is "something else altogether."

Yet the ninety-four presumably work as hard as the sumptuous six. Their business is the alleviation of small and uninteresting world problems. They have become devotees of the dollar and when that fickle deity deserts, have nowhere else to turn. Jammed in a world made up of the uninteresting world and nothing else to turn. Jammed in a world made up of the uninteresting world, dreaming about being a rich man is nothing, and making the grade is "something else altogether."

Now between Commencement and Labor Day we shall have something to offer to the subject of "Careers." Watch for the space with the Famous Signature.

MEN'S SHOES

Mark Down Sale

Our regular Winter Mark Down Sale is now in progress—an event well and favorably known and looked forward to by judicious purchasers of men's shoes.

All of our Winter Weight Oxfords as well as our entire stock of high shoes are included in this sale; at substantial reductions from our normal moderate prices.

It will pay you to take advantage of this opportunity.

Prices are net and not subject to discount during this sale

COES AND STODDER
10-14 SCHOOL ST., BOSTON

HERRICK
Plates
ALWAYS BEST
COLEY SO.

Page Two
Monday, January 15, 1923

THE TECH

FOR UNDERGRADUATES

NOTICES

The Night Editor in charge of the Front Page of the Tech will be absent the last two nights of this week and the Tech will be without a night editor.

Friday Night:

H. M. Lang

Saturday Night:

J. E. Adams

To be sure the railroad company did everything to make the trip enjoyable. When we arrived in Atlantic City, the Lunch and Lippincott's was all arranged for. We had only to catch the train to meet them and take them to the Atlantic City Hotel where they were already taken care of and entertained. It has been said that a day cannot be spent on a train, but this was the exception. On December 5th, old恪s were distinctly disliked for the hotel gave the men a very nice dinner. Many of the fellows would have given their right arm to have had such a dinner on the train, but their best efforts were in vain. The train was late, the wait was long, the food was poor, and the fellows were hungry. But they were given for the night. But the trip from Atlantic City to Philadelphia was the best. Mr. Young and Mr. Weygandt, residents, Mr. and Mrs. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Hecel, and Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald, allowed all the boys a greathearted welcome.

Down in Philadelphia, the Alumni House was occupied by us and taken care of by us. It is a great deal of work to run a club and one of the men was doing the best he could. Although there is nothing particularly formal of which to speak on the trip, the hotel and congeniality showed their worth.

To be sure the railroad company did everything to make the trip enjoyable. When we arrived in Atlantic City, the Lunch and Lippincott's was all arranged for. We had only to catch the train to meet them and take them to the Atlantic City Hotel where they were already taken care of and entertained. It has been said that a day cannot be spent on a train, but this was the exception. On December 5th, old恪s were distinctly disliked for the hotel gave the men a very nice dinner. Many of the fellows would have given their right arm to have had such a dinner on the train, but their best efforts were in vain. The train was late, the wait was long, the food was poor, and the fellows were hungry. But they were given for the night. But the trip from Atlantic City to Philadelphia was the best. Mr. Young and Mr. Weygandt, residents, Mr. and Mrs. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Hecel, and Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald, allowed all the boys a greathearted welcome.

Down in Philadelphia, the Alumni House was occupied by us and taken care of by us. It is a great deal of work to run a club and one of the men was doing the best he could. Although there is nothing particularly formal of which to speak on the trip, the hotel and congeniality showed their worth.

To be sure the railroad company did everything to make the trip enjoyable. When we arrived in Atlantic City, the Lunch and Lippincott's was all arranged for. We had only to catch the train to meet them and take them to the Atlantic City Hotel where they were already taken care of and entertained. It has been said that a day cannot be spent on a train, but this was the exception. On December 5th, old恪s were distinctly disliked for the hotel gave the men a very nice dinner. Many of the fellows would have given their right arm to have had such a dinner on the train, but their best efforts were in vain. The train was late, the wait was long, the food was poor, and the fellows were hungry. But they were given for the night. But the trip from Atlantic City to Philadelphia was the best. Mr. Young and Mr. Weygandt, residents, Mr. and Mrs. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Hecel, and Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald, allowed all the boys a greathearted welcome.

Down in Philadelphia, the Alumni House was occupied by us and taken care of by us. It is a great deal of work to run a club and one of the men was doing the best he could. Although there is nothing particularly formal of which to speak on the trip, the hotel and congeniality showed their worth.

To be sure the railroad company did everything to make the trip enjoyable. When we arrived in Atlantic City, the Lunch and Lippincott's was all arranged for. We had only to catch the train to meet them and take them to the Atlantic City Hotel where they were already taken care of and entertained. It has been said that a day cannot be spent on a train, but this was the exception. On December 5th, old恪s were distinctly disliked for the hotel gave the men a very nice dinner. Many of the fellows would have given their right arm to have had such a dinner on the train, but their best efforts were in vain. The train was late, the wait was long, the food was poor, and the fellows were hungry. But they were given for the night. But the trip from Atlantic City to Philadelphia was the best. Mr. Young and Mr. Weygandt, residents, Mr. and Mrs. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Hecel, and Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald, allowed all the boys a greathearted welcome.

Down in Philadelphia, the Alumni House was occupied by us and taken care of by us. It is a great deal of work to run a club and one of the men was doing the best he could. Although there is nothing particularly formal of which to speak on the trip, the hotel and congeniality showed their worth.

To be sure the railroad company did everything to make the trip enjoyable. When we arrived in Atlantic City, the Lunch and Lippincott's was all arranged for. We had only to catch the train to meet them and take them to the Atlantic City Hotel where they were already taken care of and entertained. It has been said that a day cannot be spent on a train, but this was the exception. On December 5th, old恪s were distinctly disliked for the hotel gave the men a very nice dinner. Many of the fellows would have given their right arm to have had such a dinner on the train, but their best efforts were in vain. The train was late, the wait was long, the food was poor, and the fellows were hungry. But they were given for the night. But the trip from Atlantic City to Philadelphia was the best. Mr. Young and Mr. Weygandt, residents, Mr. and Mrs. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Hecel, and Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald, allowed all the boys a greathearted welcome.

Down in Philadelphia, the Alumni House was occupied by us and taken care of by us. It is a great deal of work to run a club and one of the men was doing the best he could. Although there is nothing particularly formal of which to speak on the trip, the hotel and congeniality showed their worth.