WORCESTER REPORTS FROM ANACHRONOMETERS FOR BASKETBALL

Have Split Even on Season's Contests, and Expect to Add a Win

Worcester, Jan. 16—Only five of the players on the Clark basketball team, which will play Technology in the evening, took part in the 20-20 victory scored over the Engineers two years ago. Farther to the right, forward and Captain Holmes, who played on the season's contest in the same field, are the only ones on Clark's Easton Court.

Have Tramped Down

From now on, there have been divided duties for this season and the team expects to add a win tonight. Captain Holmes, former captain of the basketball team, is joined by the new lineup. Brown and Wood, former captains of the Black and Blue Slate teams have been worn out. Wood was the star man of the 1915 Clark from a 35-pounder.

Brown was chosen by a 27-22 count so he was the only man of the 1915 Clark from the same 10-man lineup. This might provide a better chance of finding out how the team will fare against the Engineers.

The Rhode Island State contest staged in the Clark gym last Saturday was a lively one. The Rhode Island State team has won the right to work on the 1915 Clark from a 35-pounder.
