erably more speed than he showed last weekend, though he was unable to quite equal the pace of his opponent. Bateman had to rely on the other watch to registtop seven. It was very close, and the frenzy was great. But eventually Glen Bateman was pronounced the winner on points.

Art Smith, captain of the Enterprise track men, has also proved himself a valuable member of the varsity. He has held final clockings for his 440 yards last winter.

Al Lindsay has been forced to bow to Princeton for the Army Cadets the first beating they received in a hard fight.

The Army Cadets were held to a 4-4 draw by the West Pointers. The West Pointers have won seven games in a row, and are eight points ahead of the Army.

In the game between the two teams, the Army Cadets were ahead 4-3 at the half, but were tied at 4-4 in the third quarter.

The Army Cadets then scored two goals in the fourth quarter to win the game.

The game was very hard fought, and both teams played well. The Army Cadets were the better team, however, and won the game by a score of 6-4.

New Equipment for Crew-Men Big Advantage

Four new shells and a set of oars and sculls were added to the list of equipment by the crew.

The new shells were of the latest shape and weight, so it was possible to fit each crew with the sort of equipment which will stack up against Boston and Technology next Wednesday at the Faneuil Hall.

One of the new craft is of broad bean, shape and weight, so it will be possible
