

WALKER SCENE OF NASH'S LECTURES

Committee Feels 10-250 Too Small for Undergraduate Audience

CITES APPLICATIONS

By unanimous vote of the committee in charge of the Arthur Nash talks, at the Institute February 5, 6, and 7, they will be given in the main hall of Walker Memorial instead of room 10-250.

The story of the first successful application of the Golden Rule to the field of modern industry by Mr. Nash has been told many times to groups of college men in all parts of the United States, but this is to be the first opportunity for the undergraduates at Technology to hear it and of the unusual results that have followed.

Company Near Failure in 1919 The clothing establishment in Cincinnati, in which these results have been obtained, came into Mr. Nash's hands in 1919 and, working against severe competition, soon was on such a basis that the end was in sight.

In 1921 the establishment did a business of $200,000,000. Today there is not a time clock in factories where the company's 2000 employers work on a five day schedule.

Mr. A. W. Seels, the secretary of the club, expressed his desire for all members to be present. RADIO SOCIETY TRIP COMES NEXT TUESDAY

Visit General Radio Factory—Power of Transmitter Being Increased

The plant of the General Radio Company will be inspected by the M. I. T. Radio Society, Tuesday, February 6. Members who wish to take this trip will meet at the radio station, in building 35, at 3 o'clock, and go directly to the factory, which is located on Massachusetts Avenue near the Institute.

The General Radio Company has been in the radio business since the beginning, and now have a very up-to-date plant for the manufacture of radio apparatus. They also maintain a modern radio research laboratory. A tour of both the plant and the laboratory will be made by the members of the radio society.

Construct New Set

A 250 watt power tube has been secured by the society, and will be installed immediately to replace the 50 watt tube in use at present. The new tube is to be used by itself as the oscillator. It is planned to use a special new system to modulate the output at 500 cycles, without applying 500 cycle alternating current direct to the plate of the tube.

Construction work on an Armstrong super-heterodyne receiving set was begun at the station Saturday afternoon. As there is a large amount of work required in the assembling of a set of this type, the radio society wishes that any one interested in such work would come to the station and help in the construction of the set. Volunteers are also wanted to aid in making changes in the transmitter which are necessary in installing the new tube.

N. Y. TECH SHOW TICKETS OUT LAST OF FEBRUARY

Ballet and Chorus Definitely Chosen This Week

The applications for tickets for the two New York performances of Tech Show will not be available until the latter part of February. The plan of the management for the accommodation of undergraduates is to accept the applications here and send them to New York where all the tickets are being sold. The tickets would be sent back here and distributed to the men before exams and they would in this way secure the pick of seats along with the alumni of that section.

Raymond Sovey to Do Costumes The reservation for the Hartford performance will be handled in the same way. The date when these applications can be obtained will be announced by the show management at some future time.

It was expected that the final cuts of the chorus and ballet would be made at the rehearsals yesterday but due to the illness of Miss Tanner, the coach, these were postponed to sometime this week. Raymond Sovey, who designed and produced the costumes for last year's show, was at the rehearsal and took measurements of the men for their costumes.
