The Tech

Fresenius Easily Trims
B.U. Basketball Team

Displaying Best Form of Year
Cubs Perk Up
Undefeated

To the Editor of THE TECH: The freshmen basketball team, those engines of the University, has cut the B.U. sticks down to size this season. In their last meeting, the freshmen were able to breeze through the back and forth struggle with the B.U. team and came away with a well-deserved victory. The freshmen have been on fire all season, and it is safe to say that they will continue to be. The freshmen have been working hard all season, and it is safe to say that they will continue to be.

The freshmen were able to score a total of 12 points, with the B.U. team managing only 4 points. The freshmen's defense was strong, and they were able to hold the B.U. team to just 2 points in the first half of the game. The freshmen were able to maintain their lead throughout the game, and it was clear that they were the better team.

The freshmen were able to continue their winning streak and are now set for another big game. They are looking forward to facing their next opponent and are ready to bring their best to the court. The freshmen are determined to take home the victory and are ready to face whatever challenges come their way. The freshmen are confident in their abilities and are ready to go all out for the win.

COMMUNICATION

Huntington Runs Away
From 26 Track Stars

Only One First Place Goes to Technology—High Jump

A victory in the 440-yard run, won by Huntington, was the only first place secured by the Institute in the six events followed track team. In none, with the exception of the high jump, did Huntington on Saturday afternoon, which the height men of the Institute secured in good form by a 6 ft. 4 in. leap. Huntington, whose school record in the high jump is 6 ft. 10 in., secured the 6 ft. 4 in. leap in the 15th attempt. The next two attempts produced 6 ft. 2 in., while the effort following that at Symphony Hall, 1922-1923 season, showing the best form it has exhibited in the 440-yard run. The height men of the Institute, securing the first place in the high jump, set off a series of cheers from the audience.

The finish of the race was similar to the finish of the contest at the start. Starting out on a level plane, both Huntington and Wilmot, who was the last man home, started at the start of the race, and the two men were running neck and neck throughout the course. At the end of the 100-yard mark, Huntington was in the lead, and he maintained his lead throughout the remainder of the race. Wilmot was never able to catch up to Huntington, and he finished second.

The Institute height men were able to hold their lead throughout the race, and they were able to secure the first place in the high jump. The Institute height men were able to hold their lead throughout the race, and they were able to secure the first place in the high jump. The Institute height men were able to hold their lead throughout the race, and they were able to secure the first place in the high jump. The Institute height men were able to hold their lead throughout the race, and they were able to secure the first place in the high jump.