YALE BOXERS FIGHT TECHNOLOGY

Captain Ed Moll May Scrap in Two Classes

There is a possibility that scrappy Ed Moll, captain of the Technology boxers, will fight in the 158 pound class as well as the 145 when his team battles Yale in the New Gym ring on Saturday afternoon. If that is the case Mike Hoar's opening smack at the bell will send Moll and Funck into a hot 145 pound match at 2 o'clock.

Yale will present a strong lineup, but Coach Nap Boutelier figures the Bulldog will have to be a pretty clever critter to annex wins in the 115, 135 and 145 pound classes. Al Lindsay, the 115 man, has not been licked this season. Lew Phillips, 135, is perhaps the most polished of the Engineer mit men, and Eddie Moll, in the 145 is a slugger who can swing across hard accurate shots, and take a lot of punishment himself if necessary.
 An elimination match between Joe Wickham and Wayne this afternoon will decide the Engineer entrant in the 125 pound fight. Wayne has been out longer, and had an edge on Joe in a practice scrap yesterday. He will probably be the coach's choice to meet the Elis. Norwood, the other 125 man will be with the wrestlers at Lehigh.

Phillips Will Fight
 Al Lindsay in the 115 is a certainty. He is a hard boxer to hit, and though he doesn't swing often, when he lands the other mauler grunts. Lew Phillips will be back in the 135 pound melee. Lew has been laid up with a bad thumb but he's in shape now and the 135 bout should be good.
 Captain Moll will certainly box in the 145 pound class, and there he is up against Funck. Frank Horgan may box in the 158 pound bout. If Horgan decides to keep out of the Yale battle, Eddie will have a chance to get back at Carey. Last winter, when Yale and the Engineers tied at 3-3, this Bulldog trimmed Moll on points.
 Joe Scholtz will be the cardinal and gray bulwark in the 175 pound scrap. He did very well down at Penn, is a big and husky boxer and capable of passing out bumps that even a 175 pounder won't find easy to take.

Wrestling Team Trips to Lehigh

Captain Rock Hereford Heads Greatly Rearranged Lineup

In spite of a two week rest the Technology wrestling team which faces the Lehigh grapplers on their own gym floor next Saturday night will be a crippled outfit. Coach Cy Burns expects to use the following: 115 pound, Bruner; 125 pound, Norwood; 135 pound, Hazeltine; 145 pound, Pike; 158 pound, Captain Hereford; the 175 pound man will be picked this afternoon and probably the unlimited at the same time.

Vaughn Weatherly, the regular 135 pounder, has gained a couple pounds which stick despite his vigorous efforts to shed them and he is now overweight. Harry Hazeltine, a 125 pound wrestler last winter has been training steadily at Lynn and will probably fill Vaughn's place at Lehigh.

Walt Kennet, who has been a consistently good performer in the 175 pound division, is now out with an injured hip. He may be able to take part in the Lehigh meet. Horle, of last year's freshmen and Sheppard, captain of the '25 team, will mix this afternoon, and if Walt can't wrestle the winner of this pair will. An infection may keep Hern Pike out of the contest. His understudy is Joe Lockwood. In the unlimited class Greer has a twisted knee and Heath is in bed with influenza. Coach Burns does not know just whom he will depend on against the Pennsylvanians.
 Technology and Lehigh did not meet each other on the wrestling mat last winter.

Swimming Team Faces Expert Navy Tankmen

On Saturday the swimming team meets the Navy at Annapolis and Capt. Bill Stewart's men will give them a hard battle. The team held regular practice at the Boston "Y" tank Tuesday and some of the members of the team had individual workouts Monday and Wednesday. The men in the dashes have been working hard this week on starts and turns, while the divers have been improving their form. The Technology splashers will finish their preparations at the tank this afternoon and will leave for Annapolis on the Mid-night Friday night.

Engineers Fence Army on Saturday

Military Swordsmen Have Shown Good Form in Earlier Meets

A match with the Army fencers at West Point will open the Technology team's season on Saturday. Captain George Ferreyra is the only veteran on the Engineer battle line but he will be supported by newcomers who have shown decided ability, according to Coach George Calnan.

The captain will use the foil and sabre. George Elkins and Walker are the other foil experts. Charles Blake, the veteran, will wield an epee, and so will Stolte. Serrano, one of the best of the new men, is the other sabre entrant.

Tomorrow night the Engineers will leave for West Point. After the contests they will attend a special military ball given in their honor by the Army authorities.

A very stiff meet is counted on. The Army and Navy have both been beaten by a New York team of cracker-jacks by the score of 10-8. This puts the cadets in a class with the middies and since for years the naval men have held the intercollegiate championship that is a pretty high class.
