RELIGION DISCUSSED IN SPEAKERS CLUB DEBATE

Members Address Many Novel Points

The question of the religion of the present day was the subject of a debate between two student speakers in the debate of the Student Speakers Club, held on February 19 in the Huntington room.

The debaters were Robert C. Wilson, '23, who defended the position that the Church of Christ is the only true religion, and William T. Jones, '23, who presented the viewpoint that there is no religion.

Wilson began by arguing that the Church of Christ is the only true religion because it is based on the teachings of Christ and his apostles. He further stated that the Church of Christ is the only organization that has the authority to interpret the Bible.

Jones, on the other hand, argued that there is no religion. He stated that religion is a matter of personal opinion and that there is no one true religion.

The debate was well received by the students who attended. Many of them expressed their opinions and asked questions of the debaters.
