My Country, Right or Wrong

Perhaps there will always be wars.

It may be, in this tumultuous world, that one's own country is worth fighting for, if for no other reason than the lives one so happens to be leading. If it is realized with the silent consent it determined to fight. Only victory is of equivocation to sign the editor's partiality towards his opponent. The truth will make its own way. It is a monster beast, both in the sense of man-

ergetic or valuable, and is a monster

ductive, occasionally even valuable,

John Hancock Said:

"I have ever considered it the indispensable duty of every member of society to promote, in every possible way, the prosperity of his own community, but especially of the community in which he resides."

Life insurance is inseparably bound up with the prosperity of every individual, family and community. It is a security and protection to business and satisfactory to the salesman in every way.

The Jones Hancock would like to interest a few friends in the business, and make Jones Hancock sell their life work.

Statistics on college graduates who have entered life insurance place it at the very top as a source of income. Making a decision as to your career will be well to make inquiries of the "Agency Department."
