SENIORS SPLURGE CASH ALLOTMENT

Prodigality This Year, Not Last Year's Frugality, Accounts for Parties

Correcting the impression that the Senior class owes its two free parties this season to frugality during its junior year, T. M. Taylor '23, treasurer of the Institute committee, says that no surplus in 1923's account last June was carried over this fall.

In the course of changing the student tax provisions last spring, a shift was made so that the classes can now accumulate surpluses. With an eye to future festivities the Junior, Sophomore and freshman classes are not spending all of their share of the present student tax.

RUSSIA SUBJECT OF TALK AT UNITARIAN MEETING

Dr. George L. Parker, of Newton, who spent three years in Russia and is a thorough student of affairs in that country, spoke on his observations at the monthly meeting of the M. I. T. Chapter of the Unitarian Laymen's League last Thursday night, in Unity House.

Russia could be made anew within five years, Dr. Parker claimed, if America would send over ten thousand plows, a number of agricultural experts, and a company of engineers, to instruct and help those benighted people.

INSTITUTE FRESHMAN DISCUSSES FREE LOVE

clared, a famous Lothario who would speak to the sisters on no other subject than free love, and turning she designated the desperately blushing Tech man.

Giggling of anticipatory delight arose all around the table as he hesitatingly got to his feet but the fair inquisitors could have spared themselves. "There is no such thing as free love" the youngster declared calmly for he was sure of his subject.

MAY PRODUCE RECORD OF INSTITUTE SONGS

side of a double-disk record, so that two records would be necessary. During the two weeks' investigation the clubs conducted, it was apparent that the interest taken by the alumni was too small to guarantee their support.

R. W. Hughes '23, and Schuyler Hazard, Jr., '23, leaders respectively of the Mandolin and Glee clubs, substantiated Brantingham's objections on the grounds of expense.

Business Building
THE selling of commodities is fundamental in every business, and selling life insurance affords the maximum of satisfaction and remuneration. For the life insurance salesman is a business builder and finds innumerable ways to serve the community and make himself indispensable in the conduct of modern affairs.
The life insurance salesman is not only a business builder but he is in business for himself, creating a competence permanent and continuous. It is the best paid work for those who are ambitious and willing to work, and who have the character and stamina necessary to stamp their individuality upon the business and on their community.
The traditions and practices of the JOHN HANCOCK are such that the college graduate can take a peculiar pride in representing this company. Williams' VII - the softest course in college
WILLIAMS' VII is a course for every man in the institution. It's seven times a week but the sessions are short—less than five minutes each. And best of all, no man who elects Williams' ever fails—to get a better shave than he ever got before.
The first thing you learn in shaving with Williams' is of the remarkably beneficial effect it has on your skin. You can't fail to be impressed—even after the closest examination—with the fact that here, at last, is a shaving cream which really does your face good.
Then, especially if you're of a practical, business-like turn of mind, you'll be pleased with the efficiency of Williams'. It softens the beard in so much less time. It does everything a shaving cream is supposed to do.
Get a tube of Williams' today. Use it for two months. See then if you ever could go back to any other shaving cream.
Notice the hinged cap. You can't lose it—and the tube hangs up!
