ERNEST HOSBACH

NEW DORM MOGUL

ment has been in a state of suppressed riot ever since January.

In an effort to clear up the situation a new constitution has been put into effect. It is up to Hosbach and his fellow committeemen to work out the details of the new system. The result of the experiment, it is said, will be watched with interest since when the new dormitories are built they will be ruled by this constitution.

When members of the newly elected Dormitory Committee were interviewed yesterday they would make no statements as to their position on the Senior Resolutions, replying that a meeting of the new committee was going to be held Monday evening in the Dormitory Reception room. Following this the committee will be able to present a united front on the questions facing the dormitories instead of each giving conflicting statements.

Prof.—Why didn't you come to class today? You missed my lecture on appendicitis.
