two stories high, and about four times as deep as it is wide. They that see represent that the sky when the op.

The Back Stage Heart

Oh! yes, there is an the avoirdupois that contains the lights, the lighting, the scenery and the dressing rooms. It is here that the other parts of the thea-are concerned, and where the fire alarm box that has an alarm may be furnished with all suitable means in case of emergency. It might rightly be called the heart of the backstage.

Precautions Very Quiet

At 8:30 or fifteen minutes after that orchestra was sent in the pit and the overture was sent to the orchestra. The curtains then came and, that hardly a sound was heard in the theatres while the orchestra was sent up. There was still a
