Technology Track Team Meets Harvard Rivals in Stadium Tomorrow

ODDS CONCEDED TO CRIMSON IN FIRST BIG ENGAGEMENT

SANBORN AND HENDRIE TO LEAD DISTANCE RUNNERS

Captain Art Smith Will Find Stiff Competition in Quarter-Mile

While Harvard track athletes, over two hundred of them, were on the cinder track yesterday afternoon working up to their best form, one of the longest workouts Coach Fred Stratton has been giving them, a meeting is preparation for tomorrow's dual meet with the Institute track team. And while the Crimson men were hard at work running in the rain, Harvard's chief performers in running, Coach Frank Sandy had his boys toiling on Broad Street and thinking little but winning on the same track.

SENIOR MAJORITY ALREADY INSURED

More than $100,000 Comes to Institute in 1948 Through Novel Plan

Alartin's star has shown in intercollegiate track and field. Whether Art Smith or not is a question that will be answered at the end of the Harvard versus Cambridge meet, but one thing is certain, the stage is set for a sure thing.

Rally Held Today

A short rally will be held today to prepare for the track meet Saturday, which is the same day that the Crimson's last meet was. It is under the auspices of the Crimson Club and will be held at 5 p.m. today on the track.

C. G. Taylor Explains Lapses of Ballots—Uncertainty Still Prevalent

The report of the Hosome Committee was filed at the meeting of the Executive Committee yesterday afternoon. This was done because petitions were submitted demanding the revote of those for whom there was no vote and for a new director of the Executive Committee. The committee then decided that those petitions be referred to the Executive Committee for their final action on them.

Institute track committee met at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and meetings were held before it until 5 o'clock. At one meeting a petition was adopted for the establishment of a new committee to be known as the Institute Committee for the present season. This committee was to consist of five men and two women and was to be appointed by the Executive Committee. The committee then decided that two petitions be referred to the Executive Committee for their final action on them.

Debaters Debout Marred by B. U.

Judge Osgood in Private Before Appointment to Opposition

The first efforts of Technology's Debating Association were made last night. When it offered debate to the Harvard University in a lively and hard-fought battle of wits. The debate was shut down because the two teams were not at all equal in their abilities. The Bostonians, who were present at the debate, were not as well organized as the Institute team and were therefore not able to carry off the day.
