Answering an Indictment

The Tech regrets to announce the resignation of G. C. Reinhardt ’24, and R. B. Baunfeld ’24.

A Victory for Student Government

The action of the Committee in referring the election of the Class of 1924 to a referendum is a victory for the Class of 1924 and the Committee. It is the only method by which the Class of 1924 can be assured that it is electing a Committee that represents their ideas and ideals. The action of the Committee is a victory for the Committee and the Class of 1924. It is the only method by which the Class of 1924 can be assured that it is electing a Committee that represents their ideas and ideals. The action of the Committee is a victory for the Committee and the Class of 1924.

Good Work, 1923!

By introducing endowment insurance, the Senior class has set the precedent for a custom which may greatly alter the course of affairs at the Institute. If the Corporation were assured a substantial source of revenue, which class endowments would constitute, the position of dormitories and office space for the activities would offer fewer difficulties. The present Seniors are starting the custom which one of the largest class endowments ever written.

The Tech desires to correct an editorial statement of the lame of Michigan the seniors prono.ade is by no means for politicians, and you do not found that you have a better chance to play any team coming. Then go again in about ten years and stable-boy as one of these "heelers." But I will not admit that the general public can be utilized by Technology under the act of March 3, 1879. Acceptance of the polls.

I would like to see that the Institute's maximum return for its hard earned dollars.

The New 1923 "Stodder" Toe for Students

We present for the coming season this students' model, exclusive in its construction, design, and quality. The style is new in black and calfskin, chestnut oxford, and tan pigskin. Brood lines are broad, broad, broad, the shoes. The broad low heels are capable of this splendid young man's model, whatever the most usual performances at vamps, tans, and side steps, makes an ideal smart combination.

COES AND STODDER

10-14 SCHOOL STREET, BOSTON