DORMITORY FROST UNDER NEW RULES

Three Special Rules Adopted Regulating Conduct in Dormitories

Members of the freshman class who are under 19 years of age and who will be in residence next year will be subject to a new set of "Dormitory Rules" according to those finally accepted yesterday.

The enforcement of these rules will be under the supervision of a specially appointed committee. This committee bars the rules out of this text in plain English.

In order to use it rule 3 is complied with it is planned to give some sort of examination to all freshmen. The committee of rules has made, among others, that a copy of the rules will be placed in each dormitory at the end of the first week. Noticeably absent from the regulations is any kind of punishment if some student does not put any kind of examination will be given.

The rules are:

1. Each student shall treat all upper classmen with respect and address them by title.
2. No freshman will wear prophylactic glasses at any time.
3. No freshman will be allowed to attend dances, plays, or any other social functions or meeting without being approved by the Faculty Committee before the event.

At the same time on this set of rules the Junior Dorm Dance Committee for next year was made. Among the members of the Junior Dorm Committee for next year were: Walter Wilkes, '24; Chairman; L. M. Littlefield, '24; R. T. Lassiter, '24; A. G. Hall, '25; and T. W. Owen, '25.
