Elect Permanent Class Officers During Senior Banquet Wednesday

Copy of "Rumors" Autographed by President Sell for the First Time

Senior Memorial this year was the last served as host to the Class of 1933 as a part of the tradition of the organization when they held their banquet Thursday evening. The Class of 1933 has been the host in the past two years. President, H. R. Smith was elected to succeed President L. K. King. Vice President, W. E. Kettler, is the successor to H. R. Smith. R. M. Shaw is the secretary to the Class of 1933.

Permanent Officers Elected

The names of the permanent officers were elected by the Class of 1933. The names of the permanent officers elected are as follows: President, R. L. Holdren; Vice President, R. E. Hendrie; Secretary, H. R. Smith, and Treasurer, W. E. Kettler.

Senior Banquet Held

The annual Senior Banquet last evening was served as host to the Class of 1933, and members of the class have been served as host to the Class of 1933. The names of the permanent officers elected are as follows: President, R. L. Holdren; Vice President, R. E. Hendrie; Secretary, H. R. Smith, and Treasurer, W. E. Kettler.

The names of the permanent officers were elected by the Class of 1933 as follows: President, R. L. Holdren; Vice President, R. E. Hendrie; Secretary, H. R. Smith, and Treasurer, W. E. Kettler.

Senior Banana Held

The annual Senior Banquet last evening was served as host to the Class of 1933, and members of the class have been served as host to the Class of 1933. The names of the permanent officers elected are as follows: President, R. L. Holdren; Vice President, R. E. Hendrie; Secretary, H. R. Smith, and Treasurer, W. E. Kettler.