Dr. Stratton Inaugurated Today at 11 O'clock in Symphony Hall

President to Be Exorsited from Home by Members of the Corporation

Technology will hold a new year at the Inauguration exercises which will be held in the evening of tomorrow, at 11 o'clock, in the Hall. At 3 o'clock, the Senior Class will cross the street from the Breakfast Hall to the Symphony Hall, and be seated in the rear of the upper gallery. The ceremonies will be the last of those organized for the inauguration of Dr. Edwin M. Stratton, as the eighteenth President of the University.

Dr. Stratton Inaugurated Today at 11 O'clock in Symphony Hall

President to Be Exorsited from Home by Members of the Corporation

Technology will hold a new year at the Inauguration exercises which will be held in the evening of tomorrow, at 11 o'clock, in the Hall. At 3 o'clock, the Senior Class will cross the street from the Breakfast Hall to the Symphony Hall, and be seated in the rear of the upper gallery. The ceremonies will be the last of those organized for the inauguration of Dr. Edwin M. Stratton, as the eighteenth President of the University.

EASTERN SCENE PROGRAM STARTS

OSTERVILLE SCENE PROGRAM STARTS

ARRANGEMENTS FOR GRADUATION OF 1923

TOMORROW FINISHED

Classes of 1893, 1895, 1898, and 1898 All Geared Back to Clean Town

Certainly a regal "Tech Weekend" is now in progress at Osterville, Mass. Poor Technology class, 1925, and 1926, are building a new town for themselves and their visitors. No formalities govern their proceedings. They open their social season with a big dance and a banquet. At 11:15 A.M., opening the exercises on the evening of the 14th, will be Governor Channing H. Cox. Dr. Charles E. Eliot, former President of the Institute, will deliver an "Address." This will be followed by the presentation of Degrees. It is also asked that the audience will remain seated at the close of these exercises.

Technology Sponsors Symphony Concerts for Students

The Department is the true benefactor of the students. It sponsors the Symphony concerts for them. The students will have the privilege of attending these concerts at the same time that they are having their own. The symphony concerts will be given at the Institute.

Dr. Stratton Inaugurated Today at 11 O'clock in Symphony Hall

President to Be Exorsited from Home by Members of the Corporation

Technology will hold a new year at the Inauguration exercises which will be held in the evening of tomorrow, at 11 o'clock, in the Hall. At 3 o'clock, the Senior Class will cross the street from the Breakfast Hall to the Symphony Hall, and be seated in the rear of the upper gallery. The ceremonies will be the last of those organized for the inauguration of Dr. Edwin M. Stratton, as the eighteenth President of the University.

Did you know that...?

"When the Indians were making a war party they would perform the war dance. They believed that this war dance would make them superior to their enemies and the dance would also give the Indians courage to fight."

ARMS OF SCIENCE..."BIG BALLOON RUSH"

A rubber air craft brought to floor by means of Air Guns

"If the Class of 1893, 1895, 1898, and 1898 All Geared Back to Clean Town"

Certainly a regal "Tech Weekend" is now in progress at Osterville, Mass. Poor Technology class, 1925, and 1926, are building a new town for themselves and their visitors. No formalities govern their proceedings. They open their social season with a big dance and a banquet. At 11:15 A.M., opening the exercises on the evening of the 14th, will be Governor Channing H. Cox. Dr. Charles E. Eliot, former President of the Institute, will deliver an "Address." This will be followed by the presentation of Degrees. It is also asked that the audience will remain seated at the close of these exercises.

Technology Sponsors Symphony Concerts for Students

The Department is the true benefactor of the students. It sponsors the Symphony concerts for them. The students will have the privilege of attending these concerts at the same time that they are having their own. The symphony concerts will be given at the Institute.

Dr. Stratton Inaugurated Today at 11 O'clock in Symphony Hall

President to Be Exorsited from Home by Members of the Corporation

Technology will hold a new year at the Inauguration exercises which will be held in the evening of tomorrow, at 11 o'clock, in the Hall. At 3 o'clock, the Senior Class will cross the street from the Breakfast Hall to the Symphony Hall, and be seated in the rear of the upper gallery. The ceremonies will be the last of those organized for the inauguration of Dr. Edwin M. Stratton, as the eighteenth President of the University.

Did you know that...?

"When the Indians were making a war party they would perform the war dance. They believed that this war dance would make them superior to their enemies and the dance would also give the Indians courage to fight."

ARMS OF SCIENCE..."BIG BALLOON RUSH"

A rubber air craft brought to floor by means of Air Guns

"If the Class of 1893, 1895, 1898, and 1898 All Geared Back to Clean Town"

Certainly a regal "Tech Weekend" is now in progress at Osterville, Mass. Poor Technology class, 1925, and 1926, are building a new town for themselves and their visitors. No formalities govern their proceedings. They open their social season with a big dance and a banquet. At 11:15 A.M., opening the exercises on the evening of the 14th, will be Governor Channing H. Cox. Dr. Charles E. Eliot, former President of the Institute, will deliver an "Address." This will be followed by the presentation of Degrees. It is also asked that the audience will remain seated at the close of these exercises.

Technology Sponsors Symphony Concerts for Students

The Department is the true benefactor of the students. It sponsors the Symphony concerts for them. The students will have the privilege of attending these concerts at the same time that they are having their own. The symphony concerts will be given at the Institute.