What is to be done? We have no desire to encourage such unholy undertakings. This is a chapter from the
T. C. A. Secures 25
Men for Silver Bay

The T. C. A. declares itself very far from satisfied with the campaign of the delegates to the Silver Bay Convention, and

The Masters and Bachelors will be in the aisles on the left side of the room and will sit there, leaving a slight interval only when calling for the President or the

Prominent and Order Essential

As there are two degrees, the Bachelors' degrees pass by their names, but the Masters' degrees by name of their houses. The chairman of the delegation, after having called the roll, will open the floor. There will be ten minutes for discussion, when any one may speak. Afterwards, a question will be put, which shall be voted upon by the delegation.

in order to save time shall have the same degree pass in the same roll, and the same vote shall be taken. The votes shall be taken in the presence of the delegates, who shall be required to be present in all the proceedings.

Cooper Associates

Admission tickets to the dinner will be reserved for the students who have been invited by the T. C. A. and invited guests. Admission tickets will not be sold for the dinner.

The University of Massachusetts, Amherst

Mon., Wed., Thurs., and Fri., 8:00-10:00 a.m.

The T. C. A. will hold its first reunion on Saturday night, May 11, at eight o'clock. The dinner will be served at 7:30 o'clock.

patronage of all Technical Associations and Faculty. A. W. BRIDGES, Manager.