TECH NIGHT UPHOLD

TECH Night has been for years the one occasion during the year for practically the whole of Technology to get together, forget, for a while, the rules of their respective professions and their relatives, and have one colossal good time. It is the kind of occasion that makes us want to be engineers, to have to make a living in some field of engineering and work in some corporation, for the mood which prevails at the close of Tech Night is that which is necessary for the realization of all our aspirations. This mood comes when one reflects on the things that have been accomplished by the alumni of Tech, and one can then realize that with the help of the alumni we shall do as much for the engineering profession as we have done for our own careers.
