DEAN HOLDS _SPECIAL CONFERENCES FOR TRANSFER STUDENTS

About 150 transfers attended the reception which was given to them last Wednesday evening by Dean and Mrs. Walker. The transfers were seated at tables in the Hotel Auditorium and they listened attentively to Dean Walker, who expressed the pleasures of Witman College. The ceremonies opened with the singing of the national anthem by the staff orchestra and the presentation of the colors by the students. After the singing of the national anthem by the staff orchestra and the presentation of the colors by the students. After the singing of the national anthem, Dean Walker delivered a speech in which he welcomed the students from other colleges to the Institute. At the same time, explaining their duties and responsibilities, he expressed the hope that the students would be successful in their work at Witman College. The speeches were followed by a reception, at which the students were invited to meet and talk with the teachers and other faculty members.

COUNT KORZYBSKI SPOKES TONIGHT

Will Tell of "The Anthropotheer or the Time Finding Differential."

Count Korzybski, Russian moral and social philosopher, who is the author of "The Science of Language," "The Art of Living," and "The Meaning of" will speak tonight at the Hotel Auditorium. His lecture will be on "The Anthropotheer or the Time Finding Differential." Korzybski is a member of the Institute of Mathematical Philosophy at the University of Chicago and is also a member of the Society for Psychological Research.

KORZ MENTOR OF TESCO TOPICS

Professor P. G. Keyes was promoted to Professor of Chemistry, while R. D. Russett, Assistant Professor of Chemistry, was promoted to Associate Professor of Chemistry. Other promotions include: F. W. Waller, Treasurer for Volume III; F. S. Schwab, Dean of the College; and E. B. Siak, Director of the School of Fine Arts.

KICKS BOSTON POLICE SYSTEM

B. W. Walker, General Manager of the Boston Police Department, will speak tonight at the Hotel Auditorium. Walker has been a member of the police force for 25 years and is well known for his strong views on police reform. He will discuss the problems facing the police force today and the need for greater police effectiveness.

EDITORIALS

With the winds at 30 miles an hour, the students of the Institute of Mathematical Philosophy were forced to modify their plans for the day. The wind made it impossible for them to continue their work on the project for which they had been planning. However, they managed to complete their work on the project, which involved the study of the effects of wind on the structure of buildings.

The wind also made it necessary for the students to modify their plans for the day. They had planned to continue their work on the project for which they had been planning, but the wind made it impossible for them to continue their work. They managed to complete their work on the project, which involved the study of the effects of wind on the structure of buildings.

Socialist Will Speak in Behalf of Labor Monday

Paul Blanshard will discuss socialism at the meeting of the Boston Labor Club, which will be held on Monday night at the Hotel Auditorium. Blanshard is an advocate of socialism and has written extensively on the subject. He will discuss the principles of socialism and the role of the state in economic and social life.

SOCKEROMES ENCOURAGED BY OUTLOOK

When another Friday comes around it will be Field Day. The lovely, sunny morning will be followed by a series of events that are sure to make the students of the Institute of Mathematical Philosophy feel happy.

The football game will start at 9:00 A.M. with the Class of 1926 and 1927 facing each other on the field where Tech has played for many years. The game will be followed by a tug-of-war between the staff and the students.

At 11:00 A.M., the Field Day Band will play while the football game continues. The band will be followed by a dance in the field where the students will enjoy themselves.

At 2:00 P.M., the Field Day Band will play again while the students enjoy lunch. The band will be followed by a dance in the field where the students will enjoy themselves.

At 4:00 P.M., the Field Day Band will play again while the students enjoy their day. The band will be followed by a dance in the field where the students will enjoy themselves.

At 6:00 P.M., the Field Day Band will play again while the students enjoy their day. The band will be followed by a dance in the field where the students will enjoy themselves.

The day will end with a banquet at 8:00 P.M. at the Hotel Auditorium.

At the banquet, the students will share their experiences of the day and enjoy the company of their friends.

SOCIALIST WILL SPEAK IN BEHALF OF LABOR MONDAY

Paul Blanshard will discuss socialism at the meeting of the Boston Labor Club, which will be held on Monday night at the Hotel Auditorium. Blanshard is an advocate of socialism and has written extensively on the subject. He will discuss the principles of socialism and the role of the state in economic and social life.

The day will end with a banquet at 8:00 P.M. at the Hotel Auditorium.

At the banquet, the students will share their experiences of the day and enjoy the company of their friends.

SOCIALIST WILL SPEAK IN BEHALF OF LABOR MONDAY

Paul Blanshard will discuss socialism at the meeting of the Boston Labor Club, which will be held on Monday night at the Hotel Auditorium. Blanshard is an advocate of socialism and has written extensively on the subject. He will discuss the principles of socialism and the role of the state in economic and social life.

The day will end with a banquet at 8:00 P.M. at the Hotel Auditorium.

At the banquet, the students will share their experiences of the day and enjoy the company of their friends.

SOCIALIST WILL SPEAK IN BEHALF OF LABOR MONDAY

Paul Blanshard will discuss socialism at the meeting of the Boston Labor Club, which will be held on Monday night at the Hotel Auditorium. Blanshard is an advocate of socialism and has written extensively on the subject. He will discuss the principles of socialism and the role of the state in economic and social life.

The day will end with a banquet at 8:00 P.M. at the Hotel Auditorium.

At the banquet, the students will share their experiences of the day and enjoy the company of their friends.