Engineers Are Outclassed as Opponents Gain 7-0 Shutout in Arena Game Wednesday

The Engineers were no match for the Harvard squad in their last appearance before the Harvard-MIT Wednesday night in the time of the game. The Engineers scored four goals in the second period and played well enough defensively to keep Harvard from scoring more.

The Crimson players were more than a match for the Engineers in the first period, and the score remained 0-0 until the 15th minute of the second period. At that time, Harvard scored on a breakaway shot by Tony Jardine. The Engineers were unable to keep the puck in the Harvard end of the ice for more than a few seconds after that.

In the second period, Harvard scored two goals, one by James Jardine and the other by John Hall. The Engineers scored in the last minute of the second period on a shot by John Adams. The third period saw another goal by John Adams, making the final score 4-0.

BASKETBALL

CRIMSON

In a meet that was full of twists and turns, the Crimson men's basketball team faced off against the St. Louis University Billikens in a close match. The Crimson team scored early and often in the first half, but St. Louis came back in the second half to make it a close game until the final buzzer.

In the end, the Crimson team emerged victorious with a final score of 74-65. The game was marked by solid defense and a strong performance by the Crimson's star forward, who scored 20 points in the game. Next up for the Crimson team is a home game against the University of Illinois on Saturday at 7:30 PM. Fans are encouraged to come out and support the team as they aim to extend their winning streak.

CONTEST IN HANGAR TO BE FOLLOWED BY DANCE

Starting with the same line up that was used against Harvard, the Crimson men's basketball team will face the Boston University Terriers in a crucial game on Saturday at 8 PM. Fans are invited to join the pre-game festivities in the hangar at 6 PM, where a contest will be held.

The dance following the game will be held in the MAHOGANY ROOM of the ADAMS HOUSE, with music provided by Moe's Place and Jukebox. All members of the class of 1924 are encouraged to attend.
