CHOICE THIRD SENIOR MARSHALL FEBRUARY 20

Special Election Necessitated by Herford-Marsh Tie

At a meeting of the officers of the fraternity recently held in order to hold a special election on Wednesday, it was decided by a vote of 15 to 14 in favor of seconding a motion made by Prof. J. T. Emerson in order between Rockwell Herford and L. E. Marsh to make the Class Day election last Wednesday afternoon optional. The motion was seconded by Prof. H. D. Keown and carried by a vote of 15 to 14. The officers of the class decided that this would be the best method of choosing between them. The votes were taken in the hall, the electioneer calling the poll. The vote almost split the class, one side believing in the best man for the position, the other believing in the man most beloved by the students.

T.E.N. SENDS OUT QUESTION BLOCKS TO ALL STUDENTS

Ask Men Whether They Buy and Read the Publication

Purpose is to obtain constructive comment.

This morning every student will receive a questionnaire, sent out by the T.E.N. to find out whether the men are buying and reading the publication. The purpose is to obtain constructive comment, and the results of which, according to Dr. E. P. Elliott, General Manager, is to bring the paper into closer touch and harmony. In the opinion of the men, the publication is better than it was before, and in the opinion of the faculty, it is a much better paper than it was before. The members are R. B. Allen '24, I. W. Clinton, and C. T. Petze '25.

MONEY FOR LAND

SLOW IN COMING, SAYS PRESIDENT

$60,000 Must Be Raised Before Building Can Be Purchased

Believes that Dormitories Are Our Greatest Need at Present Time

"The land which we have under our permanent endowment last year is about $20,000. But it is necessary to have $60,000 before we can build our dormitories. At the present time it is difficult to get money for land, and we must be patient."

Mr. Keown was appointed to the conference committee by the executive board for the purpose of representing the students of this college.

WORK OF SOCIETY IS CULTURAL, EMERSON EXPLAINS

Why Choral Society Was Made a General Study

"The type of the activities of the Choral Society is distinctly cultural and not educational in the usual sense," said Professor William Emerson, Chalalan of the Choral Society, when questioned as to the reasons why the said society was made a General Study last year. This year, he said, it is possible to assign the society its present place as a General Study because the society has earned that place. The society has done its work well, and it has earned its right to remain.

Learning about the character of the activities of the Choral Society is distinctly cultural and not educational in the usual sense,
