Saturday, March 7, 1924

THE TECH

Page Three

Two Fraternity Teams Get Wins

Only two football basketball games were played this week, Beta Phi Theta and Chi Sigma, and both victories were due to the efforts of Phi Eta Sigma, who have been on a long roll of success.

CO-EDS PLAY BASKETBALL

The Co-Eds have been out on the basketball court, with a few wins and losses so far. The club has been playing against other sororities and has done fairly well.

LITERAL TRANSLATIONS OF EXTRACTS

OF French, German, Spanish, Italian, Latin and Greek Literature. English, Greek and Latin. Give author and exact title of a work to be translated.\

PS. Where any part of the work has been published before, indicate also the source of the information.

FOR CONSTITUTION

FABERY'S SALTS

GET IT AT MILLER DRUG CO.

MASS. AVE., BOSTON, MASS.

ATHENS CAFE

American and Greek Food

Par Excellence

694 Washington St.

BOSTON

The Egypt of the Ancients

in all its splendor is just across the Charles—the Egyptian Museum, the Pyramids, the Sphinx and more. The tour is scheduled for the spring, and space under the guiding of an experienced guide is limited. Reserve your seats now. For information, call Booth 362.

THE PLAYERS

Dints of the Drama

With the return of the Spring season, the Players are planning a new production. Details are still being worked out, but it's sure to be a hit.

THE STORE FOR MEN

Washington St. at Corner of Summer

Jordon Marsh Company

BOSTON

THE SPORTS DESK

Norwich Defeats Varsity Football

Fielding Sheets Three Possible—Beavers Standing Fourth In the N.I.R.L.

The versatile rifle team lost the fifth of the five games of the N.I. R.L., against Norwich, with Norwich leading by 7.3. Norwich's position seems to be safe for the time being, but the team will have to work hard to maintain their lead.