MOORE TO SPEAK TO BIOLOGY MEN

Today's Lecturer Is Dean of Veterinary College

Most interesting in a public health reserve and the information it is being used at its office. The man is the director of the Veterinary College. In his first lecture before the students and faculty, he will give a general idea of the work of the college and some of the problems that are being studied there.

Dr. Moore will present the general principles of public health work in the United States, including the work of the Bureau of Animal Industry, and the different forms of public health work. The lecture will be given in the lecture hall of the college.

NEW WRITERS TRAINING BUREAU

You will learn how to begin actual work while learning. The bureau will train you in the technical aspects of the work of a writer, in the preparation of articles, reports, and other written materials.

This was signed by all the writers present at the conference.
