LONG ISLAND, N. Y., June 22.-Three years' moving experience on the part of the players in the Mid-West, will also be shown on the big screen here this year. The net result will be a trip to the National Association's headquarters in New York next year, although the possibility of a return to the Big Ten is not out of the question.

Three years of service on the part of the players in the Mid-West, will also be shown on the big screen here this year. The net result will be a trip to the National Association's headquarters in New York next year, although the possibility of a return to the Big Ten is not out of the question.

Three years of service on the part of the players in the Mid-West, will also be shown on the big screen here this year. The net result will be a trip to the National Association's headquarters in New York next year, although the possibility of a return to the Big Ten is not out of the question.

Three years of service on the part of the players in the Mid-West, will also be shown on the big screen here this year. The net result will be a trip to the National Association's headquarters in New York next year, although the possibility of a return to the Big Ten is not out of the question.

Three years of service on the part of the players in the Mid-West, will also be shown on the big screen here this year. The net result will be a trip to the National Association's headquarters in New York next year, although the possibility of a return to the Big Ten is not out of the question.