COAST ARTILLERY UNIT TO MAKE HARBOR TOUR

R.O.T.C. Cadets Fire Anti-Aircraft Guns

The Coast Artillery Unit of the R.O.T.C. will make a tour of inspection of the Boston system of coastal defense on the evening of Thursday, April 8th, and will make a demonstration of anti-aircraft guns from the Lynn Station of the Institute of Electrical Engineers at Bearse Wharf at 6:30 A.M. The trip will include visits to Fort Devens and Fort Devens. The cadets will land in the main harbor by a small derrick and will board a demonstration of anti-aircraft guns.

Annual Rush for Tech Show Seats Thursday

First-Comers to Have Choice of Chairs in Great Hall

SHOW TO BE BROADCASTED

Thursday and Friday of this week, applications will be taken for tickets for the Tech Show. These tickets are reserved for the use of the students, and will be turned in as applications, and will be struck on the order of the names entered.

Tickets to be Returned Next Week

Applications will be turned in on the dates mentioned. The tickets will be distributed in the class rooms in the order in which the applications were made.

FAMOUS LECTURER WILL SPEAK HERE

F. B. Riley to Give Illustrated Travelogue Friday in Room 530

F. B. Riley, amateur traveler and lecturer, will give an illustrated lecture, "Travel in the Orient," Friday of this week, in Room 530. Riley has traveled extensively in the Orient and will be able to tell the students about his experiences.

LAUNCHED TO NEW CLUBHOUSE

ALUMNI OF NEW YORK FUND NEW CLUBHOUSE

For the price of $2,500, the students at the College, through the New York Alumni Association, have purchased a new clubhouse for the use of the students.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE

U. S. PATENT OFFICE

Examinations To Be Held For Positions as Examiners

Examinations are to be held April 11th and May 9th for the positions as Examiners in the United States Patent Office, to fill vacancies which are due to the retirement or resignation of the present examiners. The examinations will be held in the Patent Office building.

MEMBERSHIP IN THE AMERICAN MECHANICAL ENGINEERS IS INVITING APPLICATIONS

The American Mechanical Engineers is inviting applications for membership. The membership is open to all engineers who have attained the age of 21 years and are engaged in the mechanical engineering profession.

SCIENTIFIC MANAGERS LAY PLANS FOR DINNER

At a meeting of the board of directors of the American Society of Scientific Managers, Thursday evening, the plans for the annual dinner were approved. The dinner will be held on Friday evening, April 10th, at the Hotel Westgate.

LETTERS SENT OUT TO CHURCHES IN VICINITY

In an attempt to reach the "L. A." student effective in promoting the religious work of the University, the Board of Directors of the University Union have made arrangements for the distribution of "Letters" in the churches in the vicinity of the campus.

AMMOSKAP TRIP DATE

TO BE CHOSEN TODAY

A letter was received by the Civil Engineering Society from the Ammokap Company, offering to release five men for the purpose of selecting a suitable place for the Ammokap camp. The five men will be released for the purpose of selecting a suitable place for the Ammokap camp.

P. B. FOOTE TO SPEAK AT PHYSICS SEMINAR

Dr. P. B. Foote, Research Physicist of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, will speak at the Physics Seminar of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Dr. Foote will discuss the "Electric and Magnetic Properties of Solids and Liquids in the Presence of a Magnetic Field."