BATTLEFIELD PARADE CLOSES INSPECTION TOUR OF INSTITUTE

Visiting Officers Examine Men in Service Uniforms while R.O.T.C. Courses

DELEGATION SENT TO France to examine the efficiency of the French military system in handling the education on the lines of the British system. The men at the Institute were satisfied with the inspection that the visit to France gives them an insight into the methods of training the officers of the British Army in their present condition.

HOLDINGS MEETINGS OF T.C.A. COMMITTEES

Eight Department Directors to Speak on Divisions

A report was held Tuesday in the Committee of the T.C.A. which comprises eight Directors of the various Departments of the Institute. The report was held to discuss the various matters concerning the interests of the various departments. The report was held to discuss the various matters concerning the interests of the various departments. The report was held to discuss the various matters concerning the interests of the various departments.

ATHLETIC AWARDS MADE AT TECHNOLOGY

President Strasser at Address

About 150 men were present at the presentation of the athletic awards during the annual meeting of the Student Athletic Association. Mrs. Kinsey, in his address, stated that the T.C.A. would advocate the flat Ulloll Scale. He also pointed out the necessity of maintaining the spirit of athletics at Technology and advocated paying the working men and women, with no breaks. The T.C.A. would advocate the flat Ulloll Scale. He also pointed out the necessity of maintaining the spirit of athletics at Technology and advocated paying the working men and women, with no breaks.

REVEREND AHARK TALKS AT CHEMISTS' BANQUET

Annual Affair Held at Copley Square Hotel Last Night

Rev. E. W. Bicknell, S.J., head of the Chemistry Department, gave the address at the Annual Affair held at the Copley Square Hotel last night. He pointed out the necessity of maintaining the spirit of athletics at Technology and advocated paying the working men and women, with no breaks. The T.C.A. would advocate the flat Ulloll Scale. He also pointed out the necessity of maintaining the spirit of athletics at Technology and advocated paying the working men and women, with no breaks.

Massachusetts Amateurs Gather

For Banquet Tomorrow in Walker

A code contest will be the opening event of the Massachusetts Amateur Radio Association's annual banquet, which is to be held in north Walker, tomorrow evening. The contest, which is to be strictly for ama-

DELEGATION SENT TO FEBMBO Last WEEK

A delegation was sent last week from the T.C.A. to New York City to inspect the efficiency of the Army in handling the education on the lines of the British system. The men of the Institute were satisfied with the visit to New York City.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF SOCIETIES ELECTED

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Student Professional Organiza-

Official Undergraduate News Organ of Technology

Vol. XLIV No. 23 CAMBRIDGE, MASS., FRIDAY, MAY 16, 1924 Five Cents

BATTALION PARADE CLOSES INSPECTION TOUR OF INSTITUTE

Visiting Officers Examine Men in Service Uniforms while R.O.T.C. Courses

GIVE GOOD IMPRESSION

Determines Whether Technology Radio Reorganization

A Battalion Parade and Review by the faculty and cadets of the institute closed the tour of inspection by the visiting officers of the T.C.A. at the Institute. The T.C.A. officers were favorably impressed, and many of them expressed a desire to repeat the visit in the future.

CLOSES INSPECTION

General Secretary of the T. C. A. Ad-

Radio Relay League, H. W. Lamson '15, of movies, including a two-reel comedy.

J. J. KEARNER WILL SPEAK AT TODAY'S LECTURE ON LABOR

Will Give Labor's Views at the Second of the Series in Room 18-259

IS FORMER STATE SENATOR

J. J. Kearner, organized labor rep-