Nine Records Have Been Broken By Freshmen Trackers—Glantzberg

And Wiebe Made Six Marks

Interesting in variety track has some excitement, emphasized the great performances of freshmen Tuesday night at the Boston Sportsmen's Club, when the Packard and the Boston College teams met in the Association's track meet. The meet was a great success, and the performance of the freshmen was particularly notable.

Captain Tressel Has Had Good Tennis Career Here

Captain M. L. Tressel of the Varsity tennis team, who completed the second year of his four-year course at Harvard University, was one of the most prominent figures in the meet. He was the outstanding player of the meet, and was responsible for the victory of the Packard team over the Boston College team. He scored five points for the Packard team, and was the only player to win all three of his matches.

Strong Contenders

The Packard team, which was the favorite, won the meet by a score of 6-3. The team was composed of Captain Tressel, R. W. Russell, W. E. Miller, E. L. E. T. and J. P. B. The Boston College team, which was the underdog, was composed of J. W. M. L. H., W. E. B., J. W. M. L. H. and W. E. B.

Crawford, the Freshman, Wins Title From Strong Contenders

(Drew Wins Hammer)

(Jared waits From Strong Contenders)

Nine Records Have Been Broken By Freshmen Trackers—Glantzberg

And Wiebe Made Six Marks

Innovations in variety track has some excitement, emphasized the great performances of freshmen Tuesday night at the Boston Sportsmen's Club, when the Packard and the Boston College teams met in the Association's track meet. The meet was a great success, and the performance of the freshmen was particularly notable.

Captain M. L. Tressel of the Varsity tennis team, who completed the second year of his four-year course at Harvard University, was one of the most prominent figures in the meet. He was the outstanding player of the meet, and was responsible for the victory of the Packard team over the Boston College team. He scored five points for the Packard team, and was the only player to win all three of his matches.

The Packard team, which was the favorite, won the meet by a score of 6-3. The team was composed of Captain Tressel, R. W. Russell, W. E. Miller, E. L. E. T. and J. P. B. The Boston College team, which was the underdog, was composed of J. W. M. L. H., W. E. B., J. W. M. L. H. and W. E. B.

Drew Wins Hammer

Throw Title From Strong Contenders

Crawford, the Freshman, Wins Title From Strong Contenders

(Drew Wins Hammer)

(Jared waits From Strong Contenders)

Nine Records Have Been Broken By Freshmen Trackers—Glantzberg

And Wiebe Made Six Marks

Innovations in variety track has some excitement, emphasized the great performances of freshmen Tuesday night at the Boston Sportsmen's Club, when the Packard and the Boston College teams met in the Association's track meet. The meet was a great success, and the performance of the freshmen was particularly notable.

Captain M. L. Tressel of the Varsity tennis team, who completed the second year of his four-year course at Harvard University, was one of the most prominent figures in the meet. He was the outstanding player of the meet, and was responsible for the victory of the Packard team over the Boston College team. He scored five points for the Packard team, and was the only player to win all three of his matches.

The Packard team, which was the favorite, won the meet by a score of 6-3. The team was composed of Captain Tressel, R. W. Russell, W. E. Miller, E. L. E. T. and J. P. B. The Boston College team, which was the underdog, was composed of J. W. M. L. H., W. E. B., J. W. M. L. H. and W. E. B.

Drew Wins Hammer

Throw Title From Strong Contenders

Crawford, the Freshman, Wins Title From Strong Contenders

(Drew Wins Hammer)

(Jared waits From Strong Contenders)

Nine Records Have Been Broken By Freshmen Trackers—Glantzberg

And Wiebe Made Six Marks

Innovations in variety track has some excitement, emphasized the great performances of freshmen Tuesday night at the Boston Sportsmen's Club, when the Packard and the Boston College teams met in the Association's track meet. The meet was a great success, and the performance of the freshmen was particularly notable.

Captain M. L. Tressel of the Varsity tennis team, who completed the second year of his four-year course at Harvard University, was one of the most prominent figures in the meet. He was the outstanding player of the meet, and was responsible for the victory of the Packard team over the Boston College team. He scored five points for the Packard team, and was the only player to win all three of his matches.

The Packard team, which was the favorite, won the meet by a score of 6-3. The team was composed of Captain Tressel, R. W. Russell, W. E. Miller, E. L. E. T. and J. P. B. The Boston College team, which was the underdog, was composed of J. W. M. L. H., W. E. B., J. W. M. L. H. and W. E. B.

Drew Wins Hammer

Throw Title From Strong Contenders

Crawford, the Freshman, Wins Title From Strong Contenders

(Drew Wins Hammer)

(Jared waits From Strong Contenders)