DIRECTIONS FOR SENIORS TO FOLLOW AT COMMENCEMENT

By Professor G. E. Russell, Chief Marshal

This year it is planned to have every Senior attend Commencement. For diplomas from the hands of President Hopkins, graduates in the Engineering graduating class numbers over 600, the presentation of diplomas presents a difficult problem which must be met and handled with the cooperation of each class. The President will address the graduates in the order in which they appear on the list of general instructions, the other classes following. The diplomas will be handed out and signed by each Seniors. The diplomas will be handed out to the graduates in the order listed on the rally card. In case of any of the above need the card personally, it is strongly urged not to miss the rally or the commencement.

No diploma can be issued to the graduate who has not paid all his matriculation fees and the final check has been made to cover the cost of his degree, as well as that of his fraternity. The successful candidate will be allowed, under any circumstances, to enter his group after the commencement exercises.

If a student comes from the Home of his group, he may march and sit with the candidates for a degree. The Senior Class, not candidates for a degree, may march and sit with the, Senior Class, to form the line.
