Flood Drives Chemists
From Laboratory Work

The wave that flooded the physics laboratory yesterday when the water system failed to function might have disrupted the chemistry department did not move at once to meet the needs of the situation. Chemistry Professor W. A. Green decided to close the physics laboratory.

The Department of Geology that water was flowing, but in this latter case there was danger of valuable apparatus being damaged. A study collection of vessels, ranging from washbottles to glassware of various sizes, was unsecured and might have been damaged if the flood had lasted any longer. The department was closed immediately with the aid of a few mops, and a considerable amount of apparatus was saved and prevented any great damage.

DISCONTINUANCE OF TECH NIGHT FINAL

Institute Committee Abolishes Customary Celebration
On Field Day

At last meeting, the Institute Committee Tech Night was abolished by a unanimous vote. The Tech Night committee had no report to make at the meeting, and the matter of Tech Night was unanimously carried out.

This action by the present Institute Committee is a continuation of the attitude taken at the last meeting. Hereafter Tech Night will not be observed.

The chairman of the committee who attended the meeting was reported to be a well-known gentleman, but his name is not known.

May Resumption Student Honor Society

At its meeting, the Academic Council voted to resume the operation of the Student Honor Society.

The Academic Council has decided to continue the Student Honor Society as a part of its activities.

The Student Honor Society was also considered.

The Academic Council has decided to continue the operation of the Student Honor Society as a part of its activities.

T.C.A. SENDS LETTERS TO 750 NEW MEN

Today, the T.C.A. Division of the T.C.A. is sending out to all members of the T.C.A. division letters to all members of the T.C.A. division.

The letters contain information about the meetings and events that will be taking place in the future.

Last year, there were eight members who attended the meetings and events.

In the future, we will send similar letters to all members of the T.C.A. division.

Senator David I. Walsh To Address Catholic Club Wednesday Evening

Senator David I. Walsh United States Senator from Massachusetts, has been invited to address the first supper meeting of the Technology Club at the Institute, according to a letter received from Senator Walsh, Wednesday, Oct. 11, 5:30 o'clock.

The meeting will be held in the great hall of the Institute, and will be open to all members of the institute.

Senator Walsh will speak on the subject of the status of the Federal government and the current political situation.

Four Professors Give Up Chairs at the Institute

ELECT H. A. MORSI, NEW LIFE MEMBER OF CORPORATION

Financial Matters Discussed At First Meeting On Wednesday

Income Exceeds Expense

R. A. Morris, Jr., became a life member of the Institute for 25 years of service. He has been president of the Institute for the last 13 years.

At the meeting, the first time the members of the corporation were assembled, the topic of the day was the financial report of the Institute for the past year.

In order, every member of the corporation, a great amount of work has been done to send personal invitations to the members of the corporation. This has been successful, and it is the intention of the corporation to continue this practice.

HOLD RECEPTION TO FRESHMEN TUESDAY

Dr. Stanton and Dean Talbot To Meet Incoming Men at 5 P.M.

Members of the freshmen class will have an opportunity to meet President Stanton and Dean Talbot on Tuesday at 5 p.m. at the Institute. This reception gives the incoming class its first opportunity to meet the members of the corporation.

On Tuesday, the corporation members have been addressing the freshmen and Sophomores will receive a registration certificate. In order to facilitate the distribution of tickets next Tuesday and Wednesday, the corporation members have been addressing the freshmen and Sophomores will receive a registration certificate.

The registration certificate will give the freshmen and Sophomores the right to attend the Institute meetings and events.

Gibson Addresses La Follette Club At First Meeting

Declares Supreme Issue of the Election Is Creation of New Party

"The supreme issue of the progressive movement today is the creation of a new political party. The Republican and Democratic parties are either too weak or too strong for the task of representing the progressive movement," declared Gibson, February 21, 1924.

Gibson, the Progressive candidate for Governor of Wisconsin, held his last campaign meeting at the La Follette Club held in Walker last night. He made the following statement to the club.

"The supreme issue of the progressive movement today is the creation of a new political party. The Republican and Democratic parties are either too weak or too strong for the task of representing the progressive movement."

In his address, Gibson discussed the issues of the progressive movement and the need for a new political party to represent the interests of the people.

In his address, Gibson discussed the issues of the progressive movement and the need for a new political party to represent the interests of the people.

CLEOFAN ENTERTAINS

New Women Students

Cleofan, the women's social organization of the Institute, entertained the new women students at the Institute this fall as a student and passenger. The trip was a success and the students were pleased with the arrangements.

The trip was a success and the students were pleased with the arrangements. The students were able to see the sights of the city and to enjoy the company of their new friends.

CALAEN

October 1, 1924

Secretary to the Dean, W. J. Murray, will return to the office on October 1, 1924.

At the end of the month, the office will be closed for the Thanksgiving holiday.

In order to make the trip as enjoyable as possible, the students were given a special tour of the city and were able to see the sites of interest. The students were also able to enjoy the company of their new friends and to experience the culture of the city.

The trip was a success and the students were pleased with the arrangements. The students were able to see the sights of the city and to enjoy the company of their new friends.

The trip was a success and the students were pleased with the arrangements. The students were able to see the sights of the city and to enjoy the company of their new friends.