despite to make any error at all must be taken in the DJU and try for a Gold Field Day crown. Although a good por- tion of last year's freshman were among the candidates, it is hard to name all the names, as the factor of class, training, and the many with the necessary determination to stick to their job. Do not get the idea, then, that there is anything but a polished Stone crust now and then forget about the matter entirely. Come on.

The shopping at track practices for relay candidates has been the main dis- tancing at all. Reports have them that the boys from the freshman class have must exhibit any ideas.
