Journalism Option

This year the Freeshmen will once again be given the opportunity to initiate a course in journalism for the summer work of freshmen and sophomores. The course will be conducted by Mr. Fredrik Jons, who has been associated with the Boston Globe. Because of the novel and interesting way in which it is taught, the course has been very popular with the student in the past. It will meet on Wednesday and Thursday from 1:30 to 3:00 in the evening. Those who have taken the course in the past will find it to their advantage to enroll. Pre-registered students, head of the Department of English and History as soon as possible. This work is essential to the student who hopes to study journalism in college, and those who have registered for this course will find it a valuable introduction to the field. This year will see the inauguration of a new running man, and the course will be further announced to the new students.
